

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

for the share falling to the said sisters out of the said inheritance; that by a partition made amongst them, there came to every of them the service of four fees of the said barony, thus held of them in common; that the castle of Legh is the chief and principal castle of the barony; that Matilda is the first-born and eldest sister, whereby that castle with the third part of the whole custody should fall to her share. It was not the king's intention by his above grant to Thomas that any prejudice should arise to Roger and Matilda, wherefore he commanded James de Aldithele and Maurice son of Maurice, sometime justiciaries of Ireland, to restore to the latter the said castle with the third part of the lands and tenements and fees of the whole custody of Offaly, in whosoever hands they might be (saving to the wife of the said Maurice her dower therein), together with all issues from the time when the said custody was first in the king's hands; but the king is astonished to hear that the said James and Maurice did nothing in the matter, and commands the justiciary to take with him, if necessary, a sufficient posse and restore the said castle and execute his former mandate.

enjoy, possession of the archdeaconry of Dublin. Upon the death of Master William de Northfeld, sometime archdeacon, when the archdeaconry was in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of Dublin, the king gave it to the said William, with the usual mandate to the dean and chapter of St. Patrick's, Dublin, to assign him a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter. But the prior and convent of Holy Trinity, Dublin, asserted that this mandate was to their prejudice, as the archdeacons of Dublin were accustomed during voidances of the archbishopric to be presented to them and to receive at their hands the jurisdiction of the spirituality of the city and diocese of Dublin, which archdeacons are accustomed to exercise during such voidance, and requested that the said William should be presented to them accordingly. Hereupon the king commanded both parties to his presence with all acts and muniments touching the matter, and gave them Master Thomas Bek and Robert de Scardeburg, king's clerks, as auditors, before whom, after several days' altercation on the question, it was at length asked on behalf of the prior and convent whether they had ever had any presentation made to them with respect to the said archdeaconry by the kings of England in times past, or anything else whereby they could prove their possession, and they answered that they had none. And being asked whether they thought it right for the king to revoke, upon their bare assertion, the mandate he had made to the dean and chapter, they replied that they were willing, for the good of the peace and the king's reverence, to hold the said William for their archdeacon.

Westminster.

Inspecimus of the record and process of a plea lately in the king's court between Robert, archbishop of Canterbury, and Richard le Waleys, knight, as follows:—Sussex. The assise comes to know whether the archbishop, Adam de Wendelesworth, Andrew de Jarpenvill, John de Arderne and Master Roger de Dertford disseised the said Richard of his free tenement

in Terring, to wit, of two parts of the manor of Terring, except 28 acres of land. The archbishop comes not, but Richard de Pevenese, his bailiff, comes, and Adam, Andrew, John and Roger come. The archbishop, by his bailiffs, says that the assise should not proceed because he entered with the will of Richard, who gave him the keys of the manor: that Richard holds the said manor at his will by the service of 18*l.* yearly in money or its value at the option of the archbishop, who shall come there once a year if he wishes and stay until he should consume food and other necessities to that amount, or at the four terms, and consume a fourth part, on condition of giving 40 days' notice. In allowance of the said 18*l.* he shall find for the archbishop a quarter of wheat for 18*d.*, a quarter of oats for 8*d.*, 4 gallons of best ale for 1*d.*, and if it be not the best let the cask be smashed, the ale spilt, and 1*d.* or $\frac{1}{2}$ d. put upon the cask, a fat ox carcase for 16*d.*, a male pig over a year old and of reasonable size for 8*d.* a fat mutton carcase for 4*d.* two fat geese for 1*d.* four fat hens for 1*d.* a hundred of eggs for 1*d.* and another hundred for nothing, dishes, plates, salt-cellar, cups, skewers (broch'), firewood (busch'), coal (carbon'), salt, 'pychers' (afterwards called vasa terrea), daily at noon, hay for nothing, and litter likewise for nothing. He shall keep the men of the manor according to their tenures, and as freely without vexation and exaction as the archbishop keeps his men of his other manors, under pain of losing the manor, and if he fails in any point or contravenes these conditions, the archbishop may enter the manor and keep it at will. And because Richard, when the archbishop came to the manor to take the service in kind as above, expended 6*l.* 17*s.* 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ d. only and defaulted as to the residue of service, and also vexes the men of the manor and exacts from them other customs and services than he ought or than the archbishop exacts from his men in other of his manors, the archbishop took the manor into his hands, as was lawful for him to do. For he says that Godfrey, grandfather of Richard, whose heir the latter is, held the manor of St. Edmund, sometime archbishop of Canterbury, predecessor of himself, by the said services, and St. Edmund took the manor from Godfrey for the like reasons and kept it until he returned it to Godfrey, of his mere grace, under a form contained in a writing as follows:—

'Godfrey le Waleys to all greeting:—Be it known that whereas by reason of many defaults in my farm due from the manor of Terring to my lord the archbishop of Canterbury according to the ancient and approved custom of the archbishopric, I had been deprived of the said manor by my lord Edmund, archbishop of Canterbury, and of my own free will, until I can have his grace, I had resigned the said manor with the keys of the houses into the hands of Master Richard de Wyke, his chancellor, and the archbishop had been in full seisin of the manor as of right, the fealties of the men of the manor having been taken by him; at my instant prayer, the archbishop has at last of his mere grace delivered seisin of the said manor to me in the following form, to wit, that the men of the manor shall hold according to their tenures as freely and without exaction as the archbishop holds his men of his other manors, under pain of losing the said manor of Terring if convicted at any time, and I have bound myself and my heirs to pay 80 pounds of silver quarterly in the four following years for the said defaults, and 10*l.* on failing to pay any quarter; and the archbishop has given 80*l.* to my four daughters to marry them, and the portions of each will be placed in the house of St. Pancras, Lewes, until with the consent of their friends they are provided for in marriage. The default of the said farm according to the custom of the archbishopric I promise to make good under all the said bonds and penalty, renouncing every privilege and remedy of any law. As to the holding of the hundred (de Lage hundredo) by the archbishop's bailiffs at Terring, it is agreed that we will stand by the ordinance and judgment of Sirs William de Ralegh and William de Eboraco. In witness hereof I have set my seal to this writing in the full court of Chancery. Dated at Canterbury, V Ides of June, in the fourth year of the pontificate of the said Edmund.

The archbishop also says that after the death of the said Godfrey the said St. Edmund forthwith entered the said manor as his right because he had granted it to Godfrey only, not to his heirs. But overcome by the insistence of Godfrey, the son and heir of the said Godfrey and the father of the above Richard, and his friends, the said St. Edmund gave him seisin of the manor without mentioning heirs, and of his special grace, on condition that he should render the farm in the aforesaid way, and not vex or oppress the men of the manor, but treat them in the same way as the archbishop did in his manors, and this appears by a letter of Godfrey to the following effect:—

‘That whereas his father, by reason of the above default of the farm, resigned the manor as specified in the above charter, the archbishop has delivered the manor to him on condition that he fully pay the farm, under pain of losing it, and that he treat the men according to their tenures as freely as the archbishop for the time being treats his. Witnesses: Reginald, abbot of Begham; Masters Richard de Wikes and Nicholas de Burford; Roger de Leyburn and Henry de Wyntreshull, knights; William de Burne and Peter de Carsing, clerks; Henry Lovel, and others.’

Wherefore the present archbishop says that he took the manor into his hand as his right by the form of the grant to the ancestor of the said Richard, as his predecessors had often done for default of service and vexation of the men, and demands judgment whether the assise should proceed.

Richard says that he gave the archbishop no keys, but that he received him into the manor as a guest. He acknowledges that he holds the manor for 18*l.* a year, and that Godfrey, his father, held it of Boniface, predecessor of the said Robert, and died seised thereof as in fee: but, by reason of the minority of Richard, Boniface took the manor into his hands in the name of a custody, and assigned to Joan wife of Godfrey, his mother, one third part in dower, and kept the custody of two-thirds until his full age, and afterwards surrendered to him those two parts as his right and inheritance and took his homage, and after the death of Boniface the present archbishop took his homage: and so he was in seisin thereof until the latter disseised him, and as to this he puts himself upon the assise.

Richard, being asked whether his grandfather and father made the above writings, says yes; but he says the writings ought not to go against him, because although they were disseised as he has been, they might have remitted the injury done to them, or, again, his grandfather and father do not bind their heirs by the said services, and he asks judgment whether the said writings ought to oust him from that assise.

The archbishop by his bailiff asks judgment, with respect to Richard’s claim of two parts by hereditary right, whether he can be in a better case than his father and grandfather if they were alive.

The bailiff, being asked whether the archbishop took Richard’s homage, says that the latter holds other tenements for which he took his homage, and if he took homage for that tenement, he did so under the form contained in the above writings.

A day was given to them to hear judgment at Estgrenested, to wit, Saturday before St. Margaret the Virgin.

Afterwards on that day, because all the jury were of the liberty of the archbishopric, the above-mentioned Joan refused to proceed, and asked that it should be of others than of the said liberty. But as there were no other recognitors present, a day was given a fortnight after Michaelmas, and in the meantime the king’s council was to be consulted.

Afterwards, a month after Michaelmas 4 Edward I. the parties came before the king at Westminster, and agreed that the king should cause inquisition to be made by knights and others of the vicinage of Terring, impartial to either side, as to what service was imposed upon Richard's ancestors when they first entered or held the manor, and in the taking of the inquisition the above mentioned writings were to be exhibited, and in the meantime the manor was to be surrendered into the king's hands.

Afterwards, on Friday after the octave of Martinmas, the said jury remained to be taken on Monday, St. Andrew's day, at Blackinglegh, co. Surrey, through defect of knights, and because of the free tenants who came, nearly all were open to challenge by one party or the other. The sheriffs of Surrey and Kent were commanded to distrain jurors so that the jury should not remain again.

Afterwards on that day, because all the knights and free tenants of Sussex were challenged on one side or the other, and Richard claimed that jury ought not to be taken by any jurors of Kent or Surrey, the jury was respited to Hilary three weeks at Westminster, and in the meantime the king to be consulted. On that day the parties appeared and a jury selected with the consent of both parties, to wit, Denis de Croft, Henry de Lyons, Robert de Sancto Claro, Simon de Sangelton, Thomas de Offinton, William de Henton, Aunfrey de Gatewik, William de la Rede, Adam le Justur, Robert Troytemenen, William de la Legh, and John de Wyntreshull, who say that the manor of Terring was once the right and member of Christchurch, Canterbury, and a predecessor of the present archbishop handed it over to an ancestor of Richard to hold by the service of 18*l.* a year, or its value in provisions, in the form above stated by the archbishop. And they say that Richard began to perform the said service in provisions, that the men ought to be treated as the archbishop treated his men in his other manors, that Richard treated them otherwise in exacting customs not due from them, to wit, that whereas they ought not to thresh corn except against the coming of the archbishop, he compelled them to thresh corn every year or pay money for it.

Hereupon Richard acknowledged the manor to be the right of the said church, and all the claims of the archbishop, and that he forfeited the manor and accordingly quitclaimed it to the archbishop, submitting himself entirely to the archbishop's grace. Therefore judgment was given that the archbishop should have seisin.

Afterwards Richard quit-claimed to the archbishop any right he might have of chasing in the woods, chaces and warrens of the archbishop in Suth Malling and Maggefild.

London.

Inspecimus of the record and process of a plea before the justices at Westminster between the abbot of St. Mary's, York, and Roger, bishop of Norwich, touching the advowson of the church of Banham. The bishop was summoned to answer the abbot why he refused to admit a fit parson at the presentation of the abbot, the latter having deraigned the advowson of the said church in the king's court before John de Lovetoft at Norwich against John le Mareschal, and recovered the same against him by a jury on 2 January, 4 Edward I. before the said John de Lovetoft at Norwich. On Friday after the Circumcision of that year the abbot brought to the bishop in his manor of Suthelmham his writ of judgment for the bishop to admit a parson at the abbot's presentation, and presented to him on the same day a clerk, to wit, Philip de Wilgheby, but the bishop refused. The bishop answers that he refused because he had already, by authority of the council, after the lapse of half a year, to wit, on the eve of St. Thomas the Apostle, a half year after the death of Reiner de Florencia, presented one of his own clerks, as he well might. And this is plain, because he says that the church of Wilgheby, whereof the abbot is patron, fell void after the death of Reiner, who was admitted thereto at the presentation of the abbot, and his successor admitted on the abbot's presentation whereby it is plain that the church of Banham also fell void. The bishop's attorney, being asked on what day the abbot presented to the bishop for admission to the church of Banham Peter the monk, his clerk, who was presented before Philip de Wilgheby, says it was the 5 Kal. April, 3 Edward I. The abbot acknowledges this, and says that Reiner was then alive, but because he was informed that Reiner had taken a wife, he presented Peter as though the church were void of right, and for the same reason he presented Nicholas de Capella, the bishop's clerk, to the church of Wilgheby. But the bishop says that on the said 5 Kal. April Reiner was dead, and offers that this should be proved by the country. The abbot says there should be no verification by the country because Reiner died beyond seas, and this he is ready to prove by sufficient witnesses of the death, and he produces fourteen persons who swear that Reiner was alive on that day. And because the bishop has no proof to the contrary, and in any case the six months should date from knowledge of the death, the bishop is to disencumber the church and admit the abbot's clerk, and satisfy the abbot of his damages, which are taxed at 100*l*.

March 6. Commission of oyer and terminer to Roger Loveday and John de Woodstock. Metingham touching an appeal which Clarice, late the wife of Gilbert Capun, brings in the county of Norfolk against John de Methelwold for the death of her husband.

Commission to Geoffrey Leukenore and Geoffrey Russel to deliver the gaol of Aylesbury of John son of Thomas le Chapman, taken and imprisoned for the death of William le Sumenur.

March 12. Commission of oyer and terminer to Geoffrey de Leukenore and Geoffrey Woodstock. de Picheford touching the following matters:—

(1) Whereas an inheritance in Hinton by Byfeld fell to Agnes de Hynton and Margery her sister, whom Hugh de Tywe married, and a partition thereof was made between the sisters, and Agnes enfeofed John de Bray of a virgate of her purparty, John son of the said Agnes asserting that he was enfeofed of the said land and had obtained good seisin thereof, arramed an assize of novel disseisin against his mother and John de Bray, and recovered seisin thereof; but the said John was not convicted because of the entry which he had therein by feoffment of the said Agnes.

And whereas afterwards the said Hugh and Margery his wife, and likewise the said John, caused a shot (cultura) of land in that town, wherein an acre of the above virgate recovered by John son of Agnes lay, to be sown and put in defence without the assent of the free tenants of the town, which according to ancient custom is necessary; the free tenants, whereof John de Bray is one, and Agnes, co-parcener of Margery, claiming common of pasture in the said shot, entered it with their beasts and depastured it, whereupon Margery arramed an assize of novel disseisin against them all, and by judgment of the court recovered her seisin. But at this assize it was objected on the part of Agnes that she had made no disseisin because she was co-parcener with Margery in that shot, so that judgment is still pending against her.

Also John de Bray, asserting that the jury of that assize had made a false oath, arraigned an attain against the said Hugh and Margery, and being beyond seas, appointed Henry son of Roger Bockoynt his attorney, and the taking of that attain is still pending.

The said John son of Agnes, finding that Hugh and Margery had recovered their seisin, obtained a writ of re-disseisin against Agnes and John de Bray, by reason of that acre of land, which he has within the said shot, previously recovered by him; but he caused to be inserted in his writ of re-disseisin Hugh le Despenser, William le Mey and Roger Bockoynte, which were not contained in the writ of novel disseisin, and caused them by sinister procurement to be convicted upon that re-disseisin by men suspected by them, and to be taken, and they are still detained in prison on that account. And by pretext of this contention, the above-mentioned Henry, attorney of John de Bray and hayward (messor) of him and the said free tenants, was killed by Richard de Keynes and Roger de Tywe, household servants (manupastos) of the said Hugh and Margery by command of the said Margery, Hugh her son, John son of Agnes and John de Preuis, and secretly buried in the twilight in the fields of Faluesle and was afterwards disinterred by some persons. And Roger his father and other relatives, hearing of his death, sought everywhere, and his brother happened to find him, and on finding him raised the hue and cry; and when this came to the knowledge of the coroner of those parts he went thither, as belonged to his office, and having summoned the township in the usual way, caused inquisition to be made of the death, and it was found that he was killed by reason of the said contention. But on a second and third inquisition by the said coroner and the sheriff of the county it was found by his ill-wishers and by persons from the remote parts of the hundred, that he was disinterred by Roger his father, William le Mey, Hugh de Faluesle and Arnold le Wodeward and carried thence to the spot where he was found, and these persons are on this account detained in prison. Emma, sister of the deceased, has brought an appeal against Richard de Keynes and Reginald de Tywe of the fact and against Margery, Hugh her son, John de Hinton and John de Preuis of commanding his death, but sued the former only in the county of Northampton.

The commissioners are to examine the record and process of the above inquisition of re-disseisin, to enquire touching the death of the said Henry, to receive the ransoms due to the king for the said re-disseisin, and to determine the premises.

Inspecimus of a record and process held between the king and the bishop and chapter of Llandaff, before Master Henry de Bray, king's clerk, steward of Bergeveny, touching the church of Lanteliowe Purthelok in these words:—Hugh, bailiff of Bergeveny, who sues for the king in the name of John de Hastings, a minor and the heir of Bergeveny, offers himself against Sir W. de Breus, bishop of Llandaff, and the chapter thereof, touching a plea of darrein presentment of the church of Lantelyou Porthalauk, and the latter not appearing, it was considered that they should be summoned Thursday before the Annunciation to hear the recognisance of the said assise. Court held on the last-mentioned date, 6 Edward I. at Berg[eveny]. The said bishop and chapter came and said that they were not bound to come at the summons of any bailiff or steward of Bergeveny for any writ of the king, nor to answer in that court touching the said church of Lanteliold Porthalauk, nor touching any right belonging to the church of Llandaff, because they and their predecessors from time immemorial continuously held it as appurtenant to their cathedral church of Llandaff, and they neither hold nor claim to hold anything of the lord of Bergeveny, wherefore they ought not to answer. And so they withdrew. And the court considered that that assise so arramed against them by the king should be taken in their default, and that further inquiry should be made touching the right of patronage of the said church, because such was the custom in that court.

Assise of darrein presentment to the said church, Thursday, the eve of St. Mary, 6 Edward I., against the above bishop and chapter, arramed by Philip ab Meurik ab David, David ab Wronou ab Gilbert, Leulin ab Wilim, Walter de Traneleye, Meuric ab Adam, Wronou ab Adam, Wastelou ab Knaithou, Blethin ab Knaithou, William de Grosemunde, David ab Wronou, Welim Philip ab Laurence, Jorevard Wauhan ab Madok, Adam Wahuhan ab Adam ab Knaithou, William son of Richard, Vincent Scudemore, Robert Wroch, Macy Wroch, Macy son of Walter, Henry the Skinner (Pellipar), Walter Comyon, Walter Somery, who say that no advocate ever presented to the church of Lanth' Porth', but that all the bishops and chapters of Llandaff held the said church to their own uses, with this addition, that Adam de Lanth' who last died therein, was their farmer, and his predecessors, John and Gorgi, chaplains, were likewise their farmers, and none of these held it for any equal sum, but paid more or less at the will of the bishop and chapter, as the custom of farmers is; and therefore it is considered that the said bishop and chapter, as proprietors of the said church, hold the same, and that the king take nothing by his presentment.

Commission to Reginald de Leye and Richard de Staunford to enquire in the following matter. Henry III. both before and after the disturbance of the realm, and the king afterwards committed the counties of Salop and Stafford to the custody of Hamo le Estraunge and divers other sheriffs, who received the issues thereof and other debts due by summons of the Exchequer from men of those counties, and made tallies to some but not to others. Hamo and the other sheriffs and bailiffs of liberties never answered at the Exchequer for these, nor acquitted the said men there, but kept the money to themselves, whereby divers sums of money are still being exacted from the men of the commonalty of those counties for the time of the said sheriffs by summons of the Exchequer, and the said men are being distrained, as well those who paid such money and have tallies or other acquittances or other sufficient proofs of payment, as others who, by reason of the disturbance of the realm, through plunderings or fires or some misadventure, lost them. The king, pitying the state of such men, has appointed the above commissioners to enquire, by jury of those parts, of no affinity with either side, what and how much the said Hamo, when he was sheriff, and the other sheriffs and their clerks or bailiffs of liberties received, and from whom and on what account. They are therefore to go personally and cause the sheriff to make proclamation in full counties that all the said persons or their heirs who have paid any such debt to the said sheriffs, their bailiffs or the bailiffs of liberties appear before them on appointed days and places, with their tallies or other acquittances, having called before them all who have been sheriffs or bailiffs, or their heirs, or holders of their lands, to be present to answer the complaints of the said persons. But whether they come or not, the inquisitions shall proceed, and the complaints and answers being heard and the full truth enquired into, that which is just shall be done and due fines imposed when the cases can be terminated. But in cases where fines cannot be levied, the inquisitions shall be reserved for the king and council; provided that if any accused sheriff or bailiff vouch to warranty the rolls of the Exchequer, he shall have a day given him before the barons of the Exchequer.

CALENDARS OF STATE PAPERS, &c.

[IMPERIAL 8vo., cloth. Price 15s. each Volume or Part.]

Subsequent to recommendations of Committees of the House of Commons in 1800 and 1836, the Master of the Rolls, in 1865, stated to the Lords of the Treasury that although "the Records, State Papers, and Documents in his charge constitute the most complete and perfect series of their kind in the civilized world," and although "they are of the greatest value in a historical and constitutional point of view, yet they are comparatively useless to the public, from the want of proper Calendars and Indexes." Whereupon their Lordships assented to the necessity of having Calendars prepared and printed, and empowered the Master of the Rolls to take such steps as might be necessary for this purpose.

THE CHRONICLES AND MEMORIALS OF GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND DURING THE MIDDLE AGES.

[ROYAL 8vo. Price 10s. each Volume or Part.]

1. THE CHRONICLE OF ENGLAND, by JOHN CAPGRAVE. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

Capgrave's Chronicle extends from the creation of the world to the year 1417. Being written in English, it is of value as a record of the language spoken in Norfolk.

2. CHRONICON MONASTERII DE ABINGDON. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH STEPHENSON, M.A., Vicar of Leighton Buzzard. 1858.

This Chronicle traces the history of the monastery from its foundation by King Ina of Wessex, to the reign of Richard I. The author incorporates into his history various charters of the Saxon kings, as illustrating not only the history of the locality but that of the kingdom.

3. LIVES OF EDWARD THE CONFESSOR. I.—La Estoire de Seint Aedward le Rei. II.—Vita Beati Edvardi Regis et Confessoris. III.—Vita Aduardi Regis qui apud Westmonasterium requiescit. Edited by HENRY RICHARDS LUARD, M.A., Fellow and Assistant Tutor of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1858.

The first is a poem in French, probably written in 1245. The second is an anonymous poem, written between 1440 and 1450, which is mainly valuable as a specimen of the Latin poetry of the time. The third, also by an anonymous author, was apparently written between 1066 and 1074.

4. MONUMENTA FRANCOISCANA.

Vol. I.—Thomas de Eccleston de Adventu Fratrum Minorum in Angliam. Adæ de Marisco Epistolæ. Registrum Fratrum Minorum Londoniæ. Edited by J. S. BREWER, M.A., Professor of English Literature, King's College, London.

Vol. II.—De Adventu Minorum; re-edited with additions. Chronicle of the Grey Friars. The ancient English version of the Rule of St. Francis. Abbreviatio Statutorum, 1451, &c. Edited by RICHARD HOWLETT, Barrister-at-Law. 1858, 1882.

5. FASCICULI ZIZANIORUM MAGISTRI JOHANNIS WYCLIF CUM TRITICO. Ascribed to THOMAS NETTER, of WALDEN, Provincial of the Carmelite Order in England, and Confessor to King Henry the Fifth. Edited by the Rev. W. W. SHIRLEY, M.A., Tutor and late Fellow of Wadham College, Oxford. 1858.

This work gives the only contemporaneous account of the rise of the Lollards.

6. THE BUIK OF THE CRONICLIS OF SCOTLAND; or, A Metrical Version of the History of Hector Boece; by WILLIAM STEWART. Vols. I.-III. Edited by W. B. TURNBULL, Barrister-at-Law. 1858.

This is a metrical translation of a Latin Prose Chronicle, written in the first half of the 16th century. The narrative begins with the earliest legends and ends with the death of James I. of Scotland, and the "evil ending of the traitors that slew him." The peculiarities of the Scottish dialect are well illustrated in this version.

7. JOHANNIS CAPGRAVE LIBER DE ILLUSTRIBUS HENRICIS. Edited by the Rev. F. C. HINGESTON, M.A. 1858.

The first part relates only to the history of the Empire from the election of Henry I. the Fowler, to the end of the reign of the Emperor Henry VI. The second part is devoted to English history, from the accession of Henry I. in 1100, to 1446, which was the twenty-fourth year of the reign of Henry VI. The third part contains the lives of illustrious men who have borne the name of Henry in various parts of the world.

8. HISTORIA MONASTERII S. AUGUSTINI CANTUARIENSIS by THOMAS OF ELMHAM, formerly Monk and Treasurer of that Foundation. Edited by CHARLES HARDWICK, M.A., Fellow of St. Catherine's Hall, and Christian Advocate in the University of Cambridge. 1858.

This history extends from the arrival of St. Augustine in Kent until 1191.

9. EULOGIUM (HISTORIARIUM SIVE TEMPORIS): Chronicon ab Orbe condito usque ad Annum Domini 1366; a monacho quodam Malmesbiriensi exaratum. Vols. I.-III. Edited by F. S. HAYDON, B.A. 1858-1863.

The author was born about the end of the fourteenth century, consecrated Bishop of St. Asaph in the year 1444, and translated to the see of Chichester in 1450. His work gives a full account of the views of the Lollards, and has great value for the philologist.

20. ANNALES CAMBRIÆ. Edited by the Rev. JOHN WILLIAMS AB ITHEL, M.A. 1860.

These annals, which are in Latin, commence in 447, and come down to 1293. The earlier portion appears to be taken from an Irish Chronicle used by Tigernach, and by the compiler of the Annals of Ulster.

There are at present six independent manuscripts of the Saxon Chronicle, ending in different years, and written in different parts of the country. In this edition, the text of each manuscript is printed in columns on the same page, so that the student may see at a glance the various changes which occur in orthography.

Edited by HENRY THOMAS RILEY, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1876.

In the first two volumes is a History of England, from the death of Henry III. to the death of Henry V., by Thomas Walsingham, Precentor of St. Albans.

In the 3rd volume is a Chronicle of English History, attributed to William Rishanger, who lived in the reign of Edward I.: an account of transactions attending the award of the kingdom of Scotland to John Balliol, 1291-1292, also attributed to William Rishanger, but on no sufficient ground: a short Chronicle of English History, 1292 to 1300, by an unknown hand: a short Chronicle, Willelmi Rishanger Gesta Edwardi Primi, Regis Angliæ, probably by the same hand: and fragments of three Chronicles of English History, 1295 to 1307.

In the 4th volume is a Chronicle of English History, 1259 to 1296: Annals of Edward II., 1307 to 1323, by John de Trokelowe, a monk of St. Albans, and a continuation of Trokelowe's Annals, 1323, 1324, by Henry de Blanford: a full Chronicle of English History, 1392 to 1406, and an account of the benefactors of St. Albans, written in the early part of the 15th century.

The 5th, 6th, and 7th volumes contain a history of the Abbots of St. Albans, 793 to 1411, mainly compiled by Thomas Walsingham, with a Continuation.

The 8th and 9th volumes, in continuation of the Annals, contain a Chronicle probably of John Amundesham, a monk of St. Albans.

The 10th and 11th volumes relate especially to the acts and proceedings of Abbots Whethamstede, Albon, and Wallingford.

The 12th volume contains a compendious History of England to the reign of Henry V. and of Normandy in early times, also by Thomas Walsingham, and dedicated to Henry V.

29. CHRONICON ABBATIE EVESHAMENSIS, AUCTORIBUS DOMINICO PRIORE EVESHAMIE ET THOMA DE MARLEBERGE ABBATE, A FUNDATIONE AD ANNUM 1213, UNA CUM CONTINUATIONE AD ANNUM 1418. Edited by the Rev. W. D. MACRAY, Bodleian Library, Oxford. 1863.

The Chronicle of Evesham illustrates the history of that important monastery from 690 to 1418. Its chief feature is an autobiography, which makes us acquainted with the inner daily life of a great abbey. Interspersed are many notices of general, personal, and local history.

30. RICARDI DE CIRENCESTRIA SPECULUM HISTORIALE DE GESTIS REGUM ANGLÆ. Vol. I., 447-871. Vol. II., 872-1066. Edited by JOHN E. B. MAYOR, M.A., Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. 1863-1869.

Richard of Cirencester's history is in four books, and gives many charters in favour of Westminster Abbey, and a very full account of the lives and miracles of the saints, especially of Edward the Confessor, whose reign occupies the fourth book. A treatise on the Coronation, by William of Sudbury, a monk of Westminster, fills book ii. c. 3.

31. YEAR BOOKS OF THE REIGNS OF EDWARD THE FIRST AND EDWARD THE THIRD. Years 20-21, 21-22, 30-31, 32-33, and 33-35 Edw. I.; and 11-12 Edw. III. Edited and translated by ALFRED JOHN HORWOOD, Barrister-at-Law. Years 12-13, 13-14, 14, 14-15, 15 and 16 Edward III. Edited and translated by LUKE OWEN PIKE, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. 1863-1900.

 Vol. I.:—ITINERARIUM PEREGRINORUM ET GESTA REGIS RICARDI.
 Vol. II.:—EPISTOLÆ CANTUARIENSES; the Letters of the Prior and Convent of Christ Church, Canterbury; 1187 to 1199.
Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Vicar of Navestock, Essex, and Lambeth Librarian. 1864-1865.
 The authorship of the Chronicle in Vol. I., hitherto ascribed to Geoffrey Vinesauf, is now more correctly ascribed to Richard, Canon of the Holy Trinity of London.
 The letters in Vol. II., written between 1187 and 1199, had their origin in a dispute which arose from the attempts of Baldwin and Hubert, archbishops of Canterbury, to found a college of secular canons, a project which gave great umbrage to the monks of Canterbury.
39. RECUEIL DES CRONIQUES ET ANCHIENNES ISTORIES DE LA GRANT BRETAGNE A PRESENT NOMME ENGLETERRE, par JEHAN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. 40. A COLLECTION OF THE CHRONICLES AND ANCIENT HISTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN, NOW CALLED ENGLAND, by JOHN DE WAURIN. Vol. I., Albina to 688. Vol. II., 1399-1422. Vol. III., 1422-1431. (Translations of the preceding Vols. I., II., and III.) Edited and translated by Sir WILLIAM HARDY, F.S.A., and EDWARD L. C. P. HARDY, F.S.A. 1864-1891.

41. POLYCHRONICON RANULPHI HIGDEN, with Trevisa's Translation. Vols. I and II. Edited by CHURCHILL BABINGTON, B.D., Senior Fellow of St. John's College, Cambridge. Vols. III.-IX. Edited by the Rev. JOSEPH RAWSON LUMBY, D.D., Norrisian Professor of Divinity, Vicar of St. Edward's, Fellow of St. Catharine's College, and late Fellow of Magdalene College, Cambridge. 1865-1886.

This chronicle begins with the Creation, and is brought down to the reign of Edward III. The two English translations, which are printed with the original Latin, afford interesting illustrations of the gradual change of our language, for one was made in the fourteenth century, the other in the fifteenth.

42. LE LIVRE DE REIS DE BRITTANIE E LE LIVRE DE REIS DE ENGLETERE. Edited by the Rev. JOHN GLOVER, M.A., Vicar of Brading, Isle of Wight, formerly Librarian of Trinity College, Cambridge. 1865.

These two treatises are valuable as careful abstracts of previous historians.

43. CHRONICA MONASTERII DE MELSA AB ANNO 1150 USQUE AD ANNUM 1406, Vols. I.-III. Edited by EDWARD AUGUSTUS BOND, Assistant Keeper of Manuscripts, and Egerton Librarian, British Museum. 1866-1868.

44. MATTHÆI PARISIENSIS HISTORIA ANGLORUM, SIVE UT VULGO DICITUR, HISTORIA MINOR. Vols. I.,-III. 1067-1253. Edited by Sir FREDERICK MADDEN, K.H., Keeper of the Manuscript Department of the British Museum. 1866-1869.

45. LIBER MONASTERII DE HYDA: A CHRONICLE AND CHARTULARY OF HYDE ABBEY, WINCHESTER, 455-1023. Edited by EDWARD EDWARDS. 1866.

The "Book of Hyde" is a compilation from much earlier sources, which are usually indicated with considerable care and precision. In many cases, however, the Hyde Chronicler appears to correct, to qualify, or to amplify the statements which, in substance, he adopts.

There is to be found, in the "Book of Hyde," much information relating to the reign of King Alfred which is not known to exist elsewhere. The volume contains some curious specimens of Anglo-Saxon and mediæval English.

46. CHRONICON SCOTORUM. A CHRONICLE OF IRISH AFFAIRS, from the earliest times to 1135; and SUPPLEMENT, containing the events from 1141 to 1150. Edited, with Translation, by WILLIAM MAUNSELL HENNESSY, M.R.I.A. 1866.

47. THE CHRONICLE OF PIERRE DE LANGTOFT, IN FRENCH VERSE, FROM THE EARLIEST PERIOD TO THE DEATH OF EDWARD I. Vols. I. and II. Edited by THOMAS WRIGHT, M.A. 1866-1868.

It is probable that Pierre de Langtoft was a canon of Bridlington, in Yorkshire, and lived in the reign of Edward I., and during a portion of the reign of Edward II. This chronicle is divided into three parts; in the first, is an abridgment of Geoffrey of Monmouth's "Historia Britonum"; in the second, a history of the Anglo-Saxon and Norman kings, to the death of Henry III.; in the third, a history of the reign of Edward I. The language is a specimen of the French of Yorkshire.

48. THE WAR OF THE GAEDHIL WITH THE GAILL, OR THE INVASIONS OF IRELAND BY THE DANES AND OTHER NORSEMEN. Edited, with a Translation, by the Rev. JAMES HENTHORN TODD, D.D., Senior Fellow of Trinity College, and Regius Professor of Hebrew in the University of Dublin. 1867.

49. GESTA REGIS HENRICI SECUNDI BENEDICTI ABBATIS. CHRONICLE OF THE REIGNS OF HENRY II. AND RICHARD I., 1169-1192, known under the name of BENEDICT OF PETERBOROUGH. Vols. I. and II. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History, Oxford, and Lambeth Librarian. 1867.

50. MUNIMENTA ACADEMICA, OR, DOCUMENTS ILLUSTRATIVE OF ACADEMICAL LIFE AND STUDIES AT OXFORD (in Two Parts). Edited by the Rev. HENRY ANSTEE, M.A., Vicar of St. Wendron, Cornwall, and late Vice-Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford. 1868.

51. CHRONICA MAGISTRI ROGERI DE HOVEDENE. Vols. I.-IV. Edited by the Rev. WILLIAM STUBBS, M.A., Regius Professor of Modern History and Fellow of Oriel College, Oxford. 1868-1871.

The earlier portion, extending from 783 to 1148, appears to be a copy of a compilation made in Northumbria about 1161, to which Hoveden added little. From 1148 to 1169—a very valuable portion of this work—the matter is derived from another source, to which Hoveden appears to have supplied little. From 1170 to 1192 is the portion which corresponds to some extent with the Chronicle known under the name of Benedict of Peterborough (see No. 49). From 1192 to 1201 may be said to be wholly Hoveden's work.

WORKS PUBLISHED IN PHOTOZINCOGRAPHY.

DOMESDAY BOOK, or the GREAT SURVEY OF ENGLAND OF WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR, 1086; fac-simile of the Part relating to each county, separately (with a few exceptions of double counties). Photozincographed at the Ordnance Survey Office, Southampton, by Colonel Sir HENRY JAMES, R.E., F.R.S., DIRECTOR-GENERAL of the ORDNANCE SURVEY, under the superintendence of W. BASEVI SANDERS, an Assistant Record Keeper. 35 Parts, imperial quarto and demy quarto (1861-1863), boards.

Domesday Survey is in two parts or volumes. The first, in folio, contains the counties of Bedford, Berks, Bucks, Cambridge, Chester, and Lancaster, Cornwall, Derby, Devon, Dorset, Gloucester, Hants, Hereford, Herts, Huntingdon, Kent, Leicester and Rutland, Lincoln, Middlesex, Northampton, Nottingham, Oxford, Salop, Somerset, Stafford, Surrey, Sussex, Warwick, Wilts, Worcester, and York. The second volume, in quarto, contains the counties of Essex, Norfolk, and Suffolk.

Domesday Book was printed verbatim et literatim during the last century, in consequence of an address of the House of Lords to King George III. in 1767. It was not, however, commenced until 1773, and was completed early in 1783. In 1860, Her Majesty's Government, with the concurrence of the Master of the Rolls, determined to apply the art of photozincography in the production of a fac-simile of Domesday Book.

This work forms a comprehensive Palæographic Series for Ireland. It furnishes characteristic specimens of the documents which have come down from each of the classes which, in past ages, formed principal elements in the population of Ireland, or exercised an influence in her affairs. With these reproductions are combined fac-similes of writings connected with eminent personages or transactions of importance in the annals of the country to the early part of the eighteenth century.

The specimens have been reproduced as nearly as possible in accordance with the originals, in dimensions, colouring, and general appearance. Characteristic examples of styles of writing and calligraphic ornamentation are, as far as practicable, associated with subjects of historic and linguistic interest. Descriptions of the various manuscripts are given by the Editor in the Introduction. The contents of the specimens are fully elucidated and printed in the original languages, opposite to the Fac-similes—line for line—without contractions—thus facilitating reference and aiding effectively those interested in palæographic studies.

In the work are also printed in full, for the first time, many original and important historical documents.

Part I. commences with the earliest Irish MSS. extant.

Part II.: From the Twelfth Century to A.D. 1299.

Part III.: From A.D. 1300 to end of reign of Henry VIII.

Part IV. 1.: From reign of Edward VI. to that of James I.

In part IV. 2 the work is carried down to the early part of the eighteenth century, with Index to the entire publication.
